Dear Operations Planners at Global Container Terminals,

Re: ILWU Union Certification

My name is Cara Kerins. Some of you may know me or have spoken with me on the phone when I was a TPC Checker at Delta Port, up in the tower or out on the rail. I just wanted to share a little bit about what the International Longshore and Warehouse Union (ILWU) is all about.

ILWU represents over 13,000 men and women in Western Canada. We take care of one another and focus on improving our member's working conditions. We have participated in multiple rallies and marches for other unions to show our solidarity. "An injury to one is an injury to all" is the ILWU's slogan.

Please see the link to our website to learn more about the ongoing campaign at your workplace: <http://ilwu.ca/unionize-all-ship-yard-and-rail-planners-at-global-container-terminals/>

Please see below for additional links to learn more about ILWU:

Thank you for taking the time to read our correspondence. ILWU supports you!

Kind regards,

Cara Kerins,
Secretary Treasurer of ILWU Local 502
